Questions to Consider
Weekend message of February 13 & 14, 2010

1. If God left the people of Babel alone how far do you think they would have gone? What was their motivation for building a tower to the heavens?
2. Today are we still building monuments in our lives by putting things before God? What are some of our own 'towers'? How do we as believers build things in our lives which point in the direction of God but it's really all about us?
3. What have we done to promote our own importance to either God or other people? Are there things in our life that we like to flaunt? Do we have a problem with pride? How can we overcome this sin?
4. God normally likes unity. Why was God concerned about the unity He saw at Babel?
5. What have you learned so far from Genesis regarding God's patience? How do you see God being patient with you? Why do you think God lost His patience at Babel? Do you think you have ever caused him to almost say "enough is enough?"
6. What is your idea on the beginning of "ethnic groups" how did they start? Give this your best shot!
